PROJECTS

Color Switcher

This was my first basic Javascript project, which allows the user to switch the background colors by clicking on different colored boxes. I learned how to use the "target" element to trigger events. I also gained some understanding of NodeLists during this project.

BMI Calculator

This was a basic BMI Calculator project, where user can input their height and weight to get the body mass index, in this project I get to know about default submission behaviour.

Guess a Number

It is a number guessing game where user tries to guess a random number between 1 and 100 within 10 attempts. Here I learned some new methods and properties which helps to manipulate attributes of HTML elements.

HOBBIES

- Singing
- Editing

EXPERIENCE

September 2022 - July 2023

M & TOOLS PVT. LTD

- I used to work as a VMC (Vertical Machining Center) machine operator. Where initially, I learned how to operate VMC machine and how to read their engineering drawings. After a few months, I started handling the machine on my own.
